

Public Impact Report: December 27, 2025

Uvalde Foundation for Kids | Excellence in Mission Delivery

In December 2025, the Foundation surpassed its previous fiscal year's performance in spending efficiency. For every dollar spent this month, nearly 80 cents went directly to youth programs and crisis relief.

Description	Amount
Cash Balance at Fiscal Year End (Nov 30, 2025)	$13,943.40
(+) December Revenue (Gifts/Grants)	+ $2,590.48
(-) December Operational Expenses	- $1,001.34
(-) December Program Expenses	- $3,894.00
Total Cash Available (Dec 30, 2025)	$11,638.54

The Uvalde Foundation for Kids (DBA Youth Peace and Justice Foundation) continues to prioritize direct community impact over administrative overhead.

Where Your Support Went This Month

The Foundation allocated $3,894.00 to direct programming in December, focusing on education, crisis advocacy, and vulnerable youth support:

- * Educational Empowerment: Awarded the $2,000 Emily Finn Scholarship to support future leaders.
- * Community Crisis Support: Distributed $1,525 through fundraisers/partnerships with NC and Annunciation Church/School
- * Vulnerable Youth Aide: Provided $369 in targeted relief for shooting victims and homeless teens.

Financial Integrity & Stability

The Foundation maintains a transparent and stable financial position to ensure long-term advocacy for

Metric	Achievement
Current Program Service Ratio	79.54%
Industry Benchmark	75.00%
Status	Exceeding Standards
our youth. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>* Debt Status: The Foundation remains 100% debt-free with zero liabilities.</li><li>* Sustainability: Current cash reserves are being managed to ensure continuous operation of the Conrad Ashcraft Investigation and mental health referral services.</li><li>* Operational Commitment: We continue to demand political commitment from state and local leaders to implement the GVI (Group Violence Intervention) model, ensuring that our programming is backed by systemic change.</li></ul> A Message to Our Partners "Our mission is defined by action, not just administration. This month's 79.54% efficiency ratio is a testament to our commitment to the families we serve across twelve counties. We aren't just funding programs; we are building a foundation for peace and justice."

